GUIDELINES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Research scholars who wish to contribute their original, unpublished articles and book reviews to the Journal may submit these by the end of March for the Summer and by the end of September for the Winter issues. The Islamabad Policy Research Institute (IPRI) is dedicated to research, analysis and evaluation of strategic and emerging issues as well as events of regional and international importance relevant to Pakistan's national policies. Papers/articles should be between 5000-8000 words, with an abstract of 150-200 words. Reviews of recent books by scholars of standing in their field should be approximately 1000 words. Authors are required to submit both soft and hard copies, along with their brief introduction, in MS Word format to the Editor at the following address:

Citation Format: Footnotes should be based on The Chicago Manual of Style 16th Edition (Full Note). The following examples are cited for guidance:

> Chapter or Part of a Book: Adil Rashid, "Maritime Security Dynamics in Indian Ocean: Pak-China-India," in Major Power's Interests in Indian Ocean: Challenges and Options for Pakistan, ed. Mushir Anwar (Islamabad: Islamabad Policy Research Institute, 2015), 113.

> Journal Article: Tughral Yamin, "Tactical Nuclear Weapons (TNW) – The Pakistani Perspective," IPRI Journal XV, no. 2 (2015): 29.

> Newspaper Article: Hajrah Mumtaz, "The Culture Cure," Dawn, April 25, 2016.

> Website: "The Chicago Manual of Style Online," The University of Chicago, accessed April 25, 2016, http://www.chicagomanualofstyle.org/tools_citationguide.html.

> For reference to a single work cited in the Note immediately preceding, use Ibid. For reference cited already elsewhere, use the short title form (e.g. Yamin, "Tactical Nuclear Weapons," 31.) Give page number, if different from the one already cited. Cite only the most authentic and up-to-date references.

Writing Style:
1. British English should be used. Dates should be written as January 1, 2016.
3. Acronym should be written within brackets after writing the words in full on first use, e.g., the South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation (SAARC). Subsequently, only SAARC should be used without brackets.
4. Percentage sign % should not be used in the text. Use "per cent".

Note: All submissions will be screened using Turnitin - a plagiarism detection software. Authors are encouraged to generate their own debate and analysis. Referenced/cited text should not exceed 19% of the paper. IPRI holds the right to accept or reject any paper/book review at any stage from being published in the Journal.
