

GUIDELINES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Scope of the Journal: The IPRI Journal is dedicated to research, analysis and evaluation of international strategic and emerging issues as well as events of global and regional importance relevant to South Asia in general and Pakistan in particular.

Submission Deadlines: Research scholars who wish to contribute original, unpublished articles to the Journal may submit these by the end of March for the Summer Issue and by the end of September for the Winter Issue.

Article Word Limit: Articles should be between 5000-8000 words, with an abstract of 150-200 words, along with key words.

Book Reviews: Reviews of recent books by scholars of standing in their field should be approximately 1000 words.

Editorial and Review Process: All submissions are screened using Turnitin - a similarity detection software. Referenced/cited text should not exceed 19 per cent of the manuscript. Articles shortlisted by the Editorial Board undergo two double-blind reviews (national and international). During this stage, articles may not be approved for publication by the referees. However, if they are found suitable for the Journal, reviewers may recommend either major or minor changes in the manuscript. The revision process might comprise multiple rounds. Peer review timelines vary depending on reviewer availability and responsiveness.

Citation Format: Footnotes should be based on The Chicago Manual of Style 16th Edition (Full Note). The following examples are cited for guidance:

- Chapter or Part of a Book: Kamal Monnoo, "The Geonomics of CPEC," in CPEC: Macro and Micro Economic Dividends for Pakistan and the Region, ed. Sarah Siddiq Aneel (Islamabad: Islamabad Policy Research Institute, 2015), 20-21.
- Journal Article: Murad Ali, "US Aid to Pakistan during the Tenures of Democrat and Republican Administrations," IPRI Journal XVI, no. 2 (2016): 31-48 (35, 37).
- Newspaper Article: Muhammad Hanif, "Why India is Opposing CPEC?" Pakistan Observer, February 27, 2017, <http://pakobserver.net/why-india-is-opposing-cpec/>.
- Website: Andrew Wood, "Putin is Running out of Options in Syria," CNN.com, April 10, 2017, http://edition.cnn.com/2017/04/10/opinions/putin-options-syria-opinion-wood/index.html?iid=ob_lockedrail_bottomlist.

For reference to a single work cited in the Note immediately preceding, use Ibid. For reference cited already elsewhere, use the short title form (e.g. Ali, "US Aid to Pakistan," 39.) Give page number, if different from the one already cited. Cite only the most authentic and up-to-date references.

Writing Style:

1. British English should be used.
2. Dates should be written as January 1, 2017.
3. Acronyms should be written within brackets after writing the words in full on first use, e.g., the South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation (SAARC). Subsequently, only SAARC should be used without brackets.
4. "Per cent" should be used in the text, instead of % sign.
5. Complete references of all figures, graphs, images, maps and tables need to be provided.

Submission Procedure: Author/s are required to submit both soft and hard copies in MS Word format, along with their brief introduction, complete contact details and a letter certifying article originality and it not being submitted anywhere else for publication to the Editor at the following address:
